

67th IFBB Men's World Amateur Bodybuilding Championships and International Congress

3rd to 8th November 2013
Marrakech, Morocco

Inspection Report

Welcome

The Organizing Committee of the Moroccan Bodybuilding Federation takes this opportunity to welcome all National Federations of the world to participate in the 67th IFBB Men's World Amateur Bodybuilding Championships and International Congress in Marrakech, Morocco, Sunday 3rd to Friday 8th November 2013.

About Marrakech

Marrakech is a major city in the northwest African nation of Morocco. It is the fourth largest city in the country after Casablanca, Fes and Rabat, and is the capital of the mid-southwestern economic region of Marrakech-Tensift-El Haouz. Located to the north of the foothills of the snow-capped Atlas Mountains, by road Marrakech is located 580 km (360 mi) southwest of Tangier, 327 km (203 mi) southwest of the Moroccan capital of Rabat, 239 km (149 mi) southwest of Casablanca, and 246 km (153 mi) northeast of Agadir.

Marrakech is the most important of Morocco's four former imperial cities. Inhabited by Berber farmers from Neolithic times, the city was founded in 1062 by Abu Bakr ibn Umar, chieftain and cousin of Almoravid king Yusuf ibn Tashfin. In the 12th century, the Almoravids built many madrasas (Koranic schools) and mosques in Marrakech that bear Andalusian influences. The red walls of the city, built by Ali ibn Yusuf in 1122-1123, and various buildings constructed in red sandstone during this period, have given the city the nickname of the "Red City" or "Ochre City". Marrakech grew rapidly and established itself as a cultural, religious, and trading centre for the Maghreb and sub-Saharan Africa; Jemaa el-Fnaa is the busiest square in Africa. After a period of decline, the city was surpassed by Fes, but in the early 16th century, Marrakech again became the capital of the kingdom. The city regained its preeminence under wealthy Saadian sultans Abu Abdallah al-Qaim and Ahmad al-Mansur, who embellished the city with sumptuous palaces such as the El Badi Palace (1578) and restored many ruined monuments. Beginning in the 17th century, the city became popular among Sufi pilgrims for Morocco's seven patron saints, who are entombed here. In 1912 the French Protectorate in Morocco was established and T'hami El Glaoui became Pasha of Marrakech and held this position nearly throughout the duration of the protectorate until the role was dissolved upon independence of Morocco and the reestablishment of the monarchy in 1956. In 2009, Marrakech mayor Fatima Zahra Mansouri became the second woman to be elected mayor in Morocco.

Tourism is strongly advocated by the reigning Moroccan monarch, Mohammed VI, with the goal of doubling the number of tourists visiting Morocco to 20 million by 2020. Despite the economic recession, real estate and hotel development in Marrakech has grown dramatically in the 21st century. Marrakech is particularly popular with the French, and numerous French celebrities own property in the city. Marrakech has the largest traditional Berber market (souk) in Morocco, with some 18 souks selling wares ranging from traditional Berber carpets to modern consumer electronics. Crafts employ a significant percentage of the population, who primarily sell their products to tourists.

Attendance at the IFBB International Congress

It is the duty and responsibility of each national federation to ensure that it is represented at the IFBB International Congress meeting. All national federations officially participating in the championships must also attend the congress, including national federations with athletes and no delegates. In this case the athlete must attend and represent his country at the Congress.

Athletes without delegates

All athletes competing at the IFBB World Championships must be members in good standing of their national federations. Any athlete who arrives without a delegate must carry an OFFICIAL LETTER OF PARTICIPATION from his national federation, failing which the athlete will not be allowed to participate.

Misrepresentation

Misrepresentation is a serious breach of the IFBB CODE OF ETHICS and occurs where an "official" of a National Federation deliberately misrepresents the number of athletes and delegates so as to obtain free of charge accommodations, meals, onsite transportation, access to the prejudging, finals, and farewell banquet, and other amenities at the expense of the Organizer. Part of this misrepresentation may be a false claim that a person is an athlete only to have that so-called athlete fail to officially register as a competitor at the weigh-in or, once having officially registered, fail to compete. Any national federation found guilty of misrepresentation will be immediately disqualified from the championships and will be fined an amount equal to the Special Package Rate for each person involved.

Preliminary Entry Form (PEF)

The deadline for the Preliminary Entry Form (available in the Appendix) is 4th September 2013. National Federations must return the Preliminary Entry Form to the Organizing Committee as soon as possible but not later than deadline date, confirming your federation's intent to participate. If at this time you do not know the actual names of the Official Participants (athletes and delegates, including judges), please indicate the total number of individuals from your National Federation who will participate in the Championships.

Final Entry Form (FEF)

The deadline for the Final Entry Form is October 24th, 2013. National Federations must submit the actual names of all Official Participants (Athletes by discipline and category, Delegates, including judges). You must also include arrival and departure information. In order to guarantee hotel accommodations for your team, the Final Entry Form must be returned not later than the deadline date.

Your cooperation is essential to ensuring your accommodations at the hotel and adequate transportation for your team.

If the Final Entry Form returns to the Organizing Committee after October 24th, then this National Federation will have to pay the full package of Euro €500 in a double room or Euro €650 in a single room for each member of its National Team (athletes and delegates) instead of the Registration Fee.

Medical Withdrawal

Once officially registered, no athlete may withdraw from competition without the prior approval of the IFBB chief judge. It is not accepted for a national federation to unilaterally withdraw an athlete without prior approval of the IFBB chief judge, who has the right to verify the reason for the withdrawal.
